

K. Leanne Kommer

---

Education 1997-2001 Campbellsville University Campbellsville, KY
Bachelor of Science Health, Secondary Education

- Graduated Summa Cum Laude
- Recipient of Special Awards and Health Education Division Award
- Certified Health Education Teacher P-12

2003-2005 Indiana Wesleyan University Marion, IN

Master of Science in Management

- Thesis in Strategic Planning

Certified Health Education Specialist April 2006

Master Certified Health Education Specialist April 2022

Relevant
Professional Experience

February 2002 to present Oldham County Health Dept., LaGrange, KY

Health Education Director (September 2009 to Present)

- Implements comprehensive public health education programs for staff, individuals and groups to promote healthy lifestyle choices.
- Conduct Community Health Assessment for Oldham County.
- Supervise: Child Fatality Review Team, Medical Reserve Corp, Drug Free Communities grant, Public Health Emergency Preparedness, Epi Rapid Response Team and Bio-surveillance.

Public Health Director (June 2005)

- Under the direction of the Oldham County Board of Health, planned, organized and supervised the activities at the Oldham County Health Department.
- Developed annual budget, assured appropriate expenditures, and analyzed financial situations. Managed activities for medical, environmental, and community programs.
- Created productive relationships with colleagues, patients, and staff to ensure a positive work environment.

Senior Health Educator (February 2002)

- Community Health Education in various programs: Coordinated the Postponing Sexual Involvement (PSI) teen abstinence program for sixth and seventh grades in Oldham County Schools. Initiated community cancer coalition.
- Tobacco Coordinator: Collaborated with community partners in tobacco awareness activities. Developed Operation Store Front, Youth Advisory Board, and other youth focused activities. Facilitated Cooper Clayton Smoking Cessation classes.