

Sarah Wilhoite , REHS

Environmental Management Branch
Kentucky Department for Public Health
275 East Main St. HS 1C-D

Phone: (502) 229-8629

Education

May 2018, B.S. Environmental Health Science with Chemistry minor, Eastern Kentucky University

Positions Held

October 2021—Present Environmental Health Inspection Program Evaluator

Environmental Management Branch, Facilities Section, Kentucky Department for Public Health, Technical Consultant for a thirty (30) county area in the North-Central region of the state. This position includes the following duties:

- Consultation for the regulation, inspection, and enforcement of the environmental health programs covered by the Facilities Section. Including but not limited to the following programs: schools, mobile home and recreational vehicle communities, swimming pools, spas, and public beaches, confinement facilities, hotel/motels, youth camps, vector control, rabies control, radon, Legionella and bed bugs.
- Assisting in revision of current regulations for programs listed above
- Develop and provide training for new and veteran health inspectors
- Develop and provide educational presentations for other agencies and the general public concerning the programs listed above
- Point of contact person for Hotel/Motel Inspections and Mold Education questions for the entire state via DPH website

August 2020– October 2021, Environmentalist II

Environmental Management Branch, Facilities Section, Kentucky Department for Public Health. Served as Environmentalist II for the Facilities Section. This position included the following duties:

- Assemble and conduct in-person and online training presentations for General Sanitation Core Training,
- Provide interpretation and guidance for new and veteran health inspectors
- Provide education to the public on all programs assigned to the Facilities Section
- Assist in compiling, analyzing, and documenting technical information and data related to assigned programs
- Aid in program regulation revisions, changes, and updates
- Assist the Kentucky Radon Program to meet the State Indoor Radon Grant (SIRG) project requirements

Licenses and Certificates

- Registered Sanitarian (Fall 2018)
- Pest Control Operator License- Category 8 (Fall 2018)
- Certified Pool Operator Training (Spring 2019)
- NSF Legionella Training (January 2020)
- National Radon Proficiency Program Radon Measurement Certification (Fall 2020)
- National Radon Proficiency Program Radon Mitigation Certification (Fall 2020)
- Biology of Mosquitoes, Ticks, and Disease-Causing Arthropods- eCornell online course (November 2021)

Professional Organizations

KYEHA(KY Environmental Health Association) member since 2017

- Served as Executive Board Secretary (2020-2023)
- Serve as Executive Board Vice President (2023-Present)